

he is growing more sTressed. tHe one nico capturEd, he was bled much like the citizens, but is not acting quite the same as the rest. he is sporadic. he keeps referring to this "squiRe" that he believes hAs been assigned with him.

however, that is not the stranGest occurrence, nicO, he is more secretive, as the anNual assemblage of glorified grows closer. spending more tIme in his tower, not speaking with the rest of uS, i am growing worried he has discovered my plan.

i've sent my letters to the neds, i gave them scripts from our texts. i don't know if he will find my tampering. the copies i mAdE should be enough for them to learn our secrets

I'm placing my last hopes into Them, if there is any hope of hIs plan succeeding, i will need them to find the neds.

he better kNow what he is doinG. if they are discovered, they will likely be seized.

i hope they make it back from the island of violence.
